About the Directors... Coach Dave Walker has operated Triple Threat Basketball for twenty years and has served as Director/Lead Instructor for 125+ camps in seven states while being a head coach at the high school, collegiate and semi-professional levels. Ryan Walker, Dave's son, has been coaching basketball for 10 years at the high school level after playing collegiately four years and has directed over 50 camps during his short career. Varsity campers will focus on the more intensive "V-I-P" skill development program while Grades 3-8 will participate in the "FUN-da-Mentals for Success" program. Individual and Team contests and competitions will also be held daily with a culminating awards program on the final day of camp.

Early registration is encouraged, however, walk-ons are accepted on the opening day of camp.
